The Wigwam Hosts 4th Annual Governor’s Egg Roll, Family Festivities
Enjoy breakfast, visit the Easter Bunny, participate in free activities

PHOENIX (March 26, 2014)— Fun for the entire family will abound at The Wigwam’s 4th Annual Easter Festival on Saturday, April 19. At 9 a.m., Arizona Governor Jan Brewer will kick off the Easter Egg Roll. At 9:30 a.m., there will be an Easter Outfit Competition, where guests can enter to win VIP access to the egg hunt as well as “golden egg” prizes. At 10 a.m. the Easter Egg Hunt will begin, with children divided into two groups: ages 1-4 and ages 5-8.

The morning’s festivities will include Easter egg decorating and crafts; a reading corner with Reach Out & Read; face painters; balloon artists; a Kids Fun Zone provided by Hilgers Orthodontics & Pediatric Dentistry; a Healthy Kids Get Up & Go Zone with Yoga, Zumba, Bunny Hop Races and Miniature Golf; Animal Encounters with Wildlife World Zoo & Aquarium; as well as live entertainment. Be sure to ride the Eggs-press train around the property. The family-friendly festivities will wrap up at noon.

Families can have breakfast with the Easter Bunny that morning, and reservations are available from 8 to 10:30 a.m. The buffet-style brunch is $20 per adult, $10 per child, and children under 4 are complimentary. Photos with the bunny will be available.

On Sunday, April 20, enjoy Easter brunch at The Wigwam from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. for $42 per adult and $20 per child ages 4-12. The brunch will feature salmon, crab, sliced-to-order sirloin and a made-to-order omelet station. The Easter Bunny will be visiting the brunch and will be available for photos.

Guests who want to spend Easter weekend at The Wigwam can take advantage of rates starting at $159 beginning April 18. Accommodations include breakfast with the Easter Bunny on April 19, plus a special turn-down treat from the Easter Bunny himself Saturday night. Spend an extra day for only $99. About The Wigwam

Designated as a "Historic Hotel of America," The Wigwam is an iconic Arizona landmark and AAA 4 Diamond property. In operation for more than 80 years, the property is rich in history. The Wigwam recently completed a $16 million, multi-phase renovation – including new interior décor, a new pool complex with both adult and family areas, new restaurants and bars featuring al fresco dining and entertaining areas, and a variety of new social areas and event lawns.

Situated on an estate-like setting, The Wigwam spans over 440 acres and features 331 casita-style guest rooms, including 72 suites, crafted from distinctive adobe architecture. The Wigwam also offers 54 holes of championship golf, a 25,000-square-foot Red Door Spa, four pools, and seven restaurants and bars. The Wigwam invites guests to create new traditions and lasting memories by participating in a variety of activities from morning nature walks to cooking classes, seasonal farmer's markets, wine-tasting events and more.

A winner of the TripAdvisor 2013 Certificate of Excellence, The Wigwam is located in the affluent community of Litchfield Park, Ariz. – just 15 miles west of downtown Phoenix. Litchfield Park was named the best city in Arizona in which to live by online real estate brokerage, Movoto.
